

Top tips to effective collaboration in Global Emergency Care

1

Create safe spaces for sharing

2

Value relationships and understand their importance for creating mutual trust and understanding

3

Paint the picture for those who are not familiar with the context

4

Use multidisciplinary approaches and consider external supports

5

Have a growth mindset

6

Communicate regularly and keep all stakeholders informed

7

Don't be afraid to have hard conversations

8

Nurture the nurses with knowledge, development and training - grow as a team together

9

Make the most of every opportunity learn about culture, language, build respect through involvement

10

Collaborate through cake!

