

ACEM Winter Symposium

Alice Springs, Northern Territory, Australia - 26-28 July 2015

Where cultures connect

THE AUSTRALASIAN COLLEGE FOR EMERGENCY MEDICINE IS PLEASED TO PRESENT ITS 2015 WINTER SYMPOSIUM

THERE ARE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD COME TO THE CONFERENCE

- A Alice Springs Convention Centre. Accredited by the Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine (ACCRM) and the International Federation for Emergency Medicine (IFEM). Ayers Rock tour. Arrernte Traditional Healing – Bush Medicines and Healing Practice. Abstracts. Australian books. Aboriginal art.
- C Central Australia. Conference Dinner at Telegraph Station. Cultural Awareness workshop. Cultural competency workshop. CPD. Competition in the Great Debate 'FOAMED is all froth and bubble'!
- E Emergency Medicine! Emergency Medicine specialists, trainees, and nurses. Emergency book. Exhibition. Entertainment from some wonderful talent including Edi Donald and the Transients, DJ Señor Páto and Anna Hebblewhite. ED Quality Standards. Ethics in Remote Medicine. Education Theory – then and now.
- M Mini – CART workshop. Mountain bike riding. Mbantua Starlight Bus Dinner. Mentoring workshop. Menzies Research Centre, Baker IDI and Poche Centre for Indigenous Health
- W Workshops. Welcome Reception. West MacDonnell Ranges tour.
- S Many amazing speakers including Victoria Brazil and Bob Dunn as our keynote speakers. Snake demonstration and talk from Rex Neindorf & Geoff Isbister. Social functions. Royal Flying Doctor Service Simulator.

Highlight: Conference Dinner at Telegraph Station Tuesday 28 July

A dinner you don't want to miss! Being held at the iconic Telegraph Station, delegates will be sure to enjoy a 3 course dinner set under the stars. Music will be provided by wonderful local band, Edi Donald and the Transients and DJ Señor Páto will be sure to get your feet moving with her great mix of tunes.

Guests will enjoy keeping warm by the fire pits, the outdoor heaters and socialising with colleagues on hay bales while roasting marshmallows and making your own S'mores dessert.

Be sure to dress warmly as night time temperatures in Alice Springs can drop to as low as 0 degrees Celsius.

WWW.ACEMWS.COM

