

Basic Emergency Care in the Pacific

(as of 27/08/2025)

Summary

- 307 clinicians from 16 countries across the Pacific region
- 156 Basic Emergency Care facilitators/trainers from 16 countries across the Pacific region

2025 BEC Course Participants

in Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and the Pacific region

Providers

149

COUNTRIES

5

Provisional Facilitators

93

COUNTRIES

16

Registered Facilitators

32

COUNTRIES

6

Master Trainers

33

COUNTRIES

5

Status as of 27 August 2025

This data is sourced from the Australasian College for Emergency Medicine, which acts as a Basic Emergency Care course certifying organisation for Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and the Pacific region on behalf of the International Federation for Emergency Medicine. The figures reported here represent the number of credentialed providers and facilitators who are registered in ACEM's Basic Emergency Care course database, and do not include health workers who have been certified through other agencies.

Australasian College
for Emergency Medicine

Summary

- 37 Basic Emergency Care courses delivered in Seven countries – PNG, Australia, Solomon Islands, Kiribati, Vanuatu and Fiji
- 37 Basic Emergency Care courses:
 - 25 Provider
 - 12 TOT

2025 BEC Courses delivered

in Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and the Pacific region

BEC Provider - Hybrid

17

COUNTRIES

7

BEC Provider- Classic

8

COUNTRIES

2

TOT

12

COUNTRIES

6

Total BEC courses

37

COUNTRIES

7

Status as of 27 August 2025

This data is sourced from the Australasian College for Emergency Medicine, which acts as a Basic Emergency Care course certifying organisation for Australia, Aotearoa New Zealand and the Pacific region on behalf of the International Federation for Emergency Medicine. The figures reported here represent the number of credentialed providers and facilitators who are registered in ACEM's Basic Emergency Care course database, and do not include health workers who have been certified through other agencies.

Australasian College
for Emergency Medicine